

AAC Summer Camp Program Information

2024

AAC Camp is a community. Individuals using AAC and total communication spend 5 weeks with others who communicate in similar ways. We offer an immersive environment. Our program focuses on use and modeling of language every moment we have. These are some of the things we will be looking forward to:

- Music therapy
- Movement group
- Science experiments
- Cooking
- Swimming
- Literacy exploration
- Art
- And many hands-on activities to support learning

Who Comes to Camp?

Individuals who use AAC as their main mode of communication or to add to their verbal communication. Small groups will be led by Speech Language Pathologists with support from graduate level clinicians.

Where is Camp?

This year we will host camp at Jericho, in Holyoke. The facility provides access to an accessible playground, pool, indoor space with air conditioning, outdoor space, and a welcoming community.

We all have different strengths; AAC Camp gives individuals their time to truly shine.
